THIS PIANO STORE Is Three Things First of All:

It is possibly the most extensive and comprehensive exposition of grand and upright pianos and player-pianos ever established permanently; it is a museum, AND IT IS A SCHOOL OF PIANO VALUES.

I Half a day spent in it provides a valuable education to any one about to purchase a piano.

¶ Fourthly, it is a selling center, where each instrument is priced according to the single standard of WORTH.

In buying a piano you must pin your faith to somebody—either to the maker or the dealer. Better if you can pin it to BOTH.

We are distributors of the CHICKERING, the SCHOMACKER. the EMERSON, the LINDEMAN, the KURTZMANN, the MAR-SHALL & WENDELL, the J. C. CAMPBELL and the celebrated KNABE.

¶ As well as these piano-players and player-pianos — The ANGELUS, the KNABE-ANGELUS, the EMERSON-ANGELUS, the SCHO-MACKER - ANGELOPIAN, the LINDEMAN player-piano, the J. C. CAMPBELL player-piano and the AUTOPIANO.

I Every instrument sold by us is frankly marked with maker's name. Somebody's reputation somebody's business welfare depends on its performance. There are no "masked" pianes.

No piano is ever offered for sale here unless it possesses qualities vastly more worthy than mere cheapness giving it claim to attention. The quality of mere cheapness has sold many pianos, but not here.

Terms within reason may be arranged. Piano Salons, First Gallery, New Bldg.
